

Visits by Tax Officers

Tax Officials may visit you at your principal place of business to examine your business records, methods, premises and provide guidance where necessary. Please ensure that you request to view the FRCS official ID Card before disclosing any information.

Tax Education

For further assistance, awareness and training, please contact publicrelations@frcs.org.fj. This is a free service provided by FRCS.

FIJI REVENUE AND CUSTOMS SERVICE

Call our Hotline 1326

7am - 6pm on weekdays
(on net charges apply)

Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

The Taxpayer Identification
Number is covered under Section 38 of the Tax
Administration Act.

Disclaimer

The content of this brochure is general in nature prepared for informational purposes only and does not constitute financial or tax advice to any person. We recommend you obtain independent financial or tax advice for your own specific circumstances. FRCS does not accept any liability for the use of or reliance on this information.

FIJI REVENUE AND CUSTOMS SERVICE

For more information, please contact us:
324 3000 or info@frcs.org.fj

frcs.org.fj

Did You Know?

You can now apply online for a Tax Identification Number (TIN).

What is a TIN?

It is a number issued by the Fiji Revenue and Customs Service (FRCS) to identify a taxpayer.

Who can apply for TIN?

Anybody.

What are the requirements for applying for TIN?

- Birth Certificate (Post 2000 extracts) or Valid passport (if born in other countries)
- Passport size photo with white background
- Photo ID
- TIN for alternate contact
- Email
- Mobile contact
- Parents ID (If minors)

How long does it take to apply online?

Approval is given within one day if all requirements are met.

Can't apply online for TIN?

Bring all the requirements to FRCS office the Tax officers will assist in applying.

Do I still need a TIN letter?

No, if you have a Joint card. However, Entity's, non-residents and minors would still require a TIN letter.

What if I forgot my TIN number?

You can call our Contact Centre on 1326 for assistance.

How much does it cost to get a TIN number?

It is free.

To apply for TIN online please visit our website: <https://tpos.frsc.org.fj/taxpayerportal#/Logon> or scan the QR Code below.

